

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement? Always telling the truth is the most important consideration in any relationship between people?

There are a lot of important virtues in any relationship between people and undoubtedly the most important one is truthness trustworthiness (dürüstlük/doğruluk). Today, the world is getting worse and worse (bad->worse olur tekrar ek almaz comparative olunca) day by day because everybody everybody can say-tell (ile kullanılır, to tell a lie) a lie easily. This situation harms the people's communication. Nobody trusts each other. This- cause an unreliable environment and people feel unhappy. After pondering/evaluating the -situation from several aspects, I totaly agree that telling the truth is the most important consideration in any relationship between people. I list my reasons as fallows.

The main reason for my propensity is (yardımcı fiil lazım: ana sebep şudur diyorsunuz that yan cümle) that telling the truth enhances the quality of a relationship between people. When we For example/instance think about a couple who love each other too much but one of them always say-tell lies in every subject. This harms (geniş zaman üçüncü tekil kişi çekimlerini unutmuşsunuz) their marriage because of the-untrustfulness lack of trust (güven azlığı/eksikliği). For example, -my parents got divorced because of my father's lies. I always remember that when my mother asked- my father "-where are you or what are you doing ". My father did not tell the truths anytime never told the truth (bunun doğal söyleniş şekli bu). When my mother realized -that my father did not tell the truths (çoğul yapmayız bu genel olarak to tell the truth şeklinde bir ifade olarak kullanılır at that time (buna gerek yok çünkü zaten cümlenin başında when var. Bu Türkçeden aktarılmış gereksiz bir parça)-she was feel felt cheated. So-Therefore (yazı dilinde daha çok tercih edilir) this situation harmed their relationships and finally they got divorced.

Another reason why telling the truth matter can be seen by every person (bu doğal değil, doğrusu bu şekilde olur)-is that, telling the truth constitute-establishes (daha uygun, to establish peace mesela) an reliable environment between people. To provide this peaceful and reliable environment, at first (burada ne için kullanıldığı belli değil) parents have a lot of responsibility because (because ile cümle başlatmayı tercih etmeyiz, o sebeple birleştirdik). Because-when parents raise a (çocuklar çoğul) conscious children who know telling the truths is the most important thing for their character this is very beneficial for our society. When children ~~say~~ tell a lie to their parents, they always tell this is the mistake because when ~~say~~ they tell (özne lazım bu cümleye) a lie to their parents, ~~they~~ their parents (buradaki they kim açıklık getirmek lazım) fell cheated and this causes (bu s eklerini çokça unutmuşsunuz, dikkat) and unreliable environment in the family. For instance, one of my cousins (bu da çok sık yapılan bir hatadır one of Xs hep bu son kısım çoğul olur çünkü onlardan biri diyoruz)-, who is 5 years old, always says that I have he has (reported speech) a headache when he does not want to go to the school. One ~~of~~ day when he was really sick and he had ~~an~~ a headache, ~~but~~ (whenden dolayı burada but olmaz)-her mother did not ~~rely on~~ trust (rely on bu anlamda kullanılmaz, en-en sözlükten control edin, rely on daha çok bir şeye dayanmak olarak güvenmek anlamında mesela we rely on this information) him and she did not give him permission not to go to the ~~the~~ school.

By ~~u~~ way of the conclusion, based on the arguments explored (sıfatlaştırılır, yukarıda incelenen) above, I claim that the most important consideration in any relationship between people is telling the truth. Telling the truth not only enhances s the quality of a relationship but also ~~constitute~~ establishes/forms an reliable/trustworthy environment between people. When every person has a habit ~~about of~~ telling (a habit of doing sth yapısı) the ~~truth~~ truth we can live ~~in~~ happily in ~~an~~ reliable environment.

Meltem Hanım yapı ve içerik olarak başarılı bir yazı. Fikirler iyi açıklanmış, örnekler güzel. Yani dolu dolu bir yazı. Dil olarak da advanced diyebileceğimiz bir dil var. Ancak maalesef çok sayıda irili ufaklı hata var. Mesela to tell a lie ifadesini bilmemek, a/an hataları, fiil çekimi hataları ya da kelime seçim hataları gibi.

Bunları kısa sürede düzeltip ilerleyeceğinizi düşünüyorum. Bu hataları not edip daha sonar yazı yazmadan önce gözden geçirin.
